

Inside the Flying Saucer

The friends are close to the flying saucer now.
Let's see what happens.

- _____ 1: I can't move either! What will we do now?
- _____ 2: We can't do anything at all!
- _____ 1: That noise makes my eyes hurt.
- _____ 2: Mine, too.
- _____ 1: Now I can't see a thing.
- _____ 2: Neither can I! But it sounds as if something is happening.
- _____ 1: Yes. There's a sound like doors opening.
- _____ 2: Hey, stop pushing me!
- _____ 1: I'm not pushing you. I'm being pushed, too.
- _____ 2: I don't feel any hands on me.

▲ _____ 1: It feels just like an ocean wave is pushing me.
▲ _____ 2: Something just lifted me up off the ground!
▲ _____ 1: Me, too! This is scary.
▲ _____ 2: Maybe we should have gone back.
▲ _____ 1: It's too late now.
▲ _____ 2: This is a great adventure, anyway.
▲ _____ 1: I wonder where they're taking us.
▲ _____ 2: I think they're taking us into the flying saucer.
▲ _____ 1: Listen. The doors are shutting behind us.
▲ _____ 2: We'll never get out of here now.
▲ _____ 1: I just landed on something soft.
▲ _____ 2: Me, too. And now I'm being strapped in.
▲ _____ 1: They're putting seat belts on me, too.
▲ _____ 2: I wish I could see. Oh, the noise is stopping.
▲ _____ 1: I'm beginning to see now. Oh! Just look where we are!
